

April 30th of 2019

Once they finished putting the cement for all the classrooms, the next step consisted on the collocation of the fences around three classrooms that was previously covered by cement on Saturday. The time that they spend putting the fences was less than they speck and before the day ends all of the fences were in the corresponding place, but, for the two classrooms left was necessary to wait the wood to make the trusses.

30/04/2019

30/04/2019

30/04/2019